

Co C

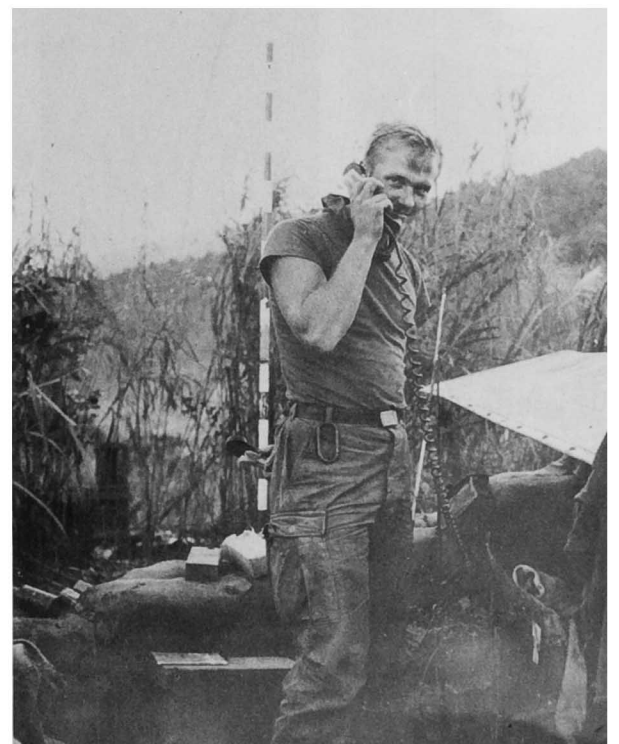

Gee, where did everyone go?

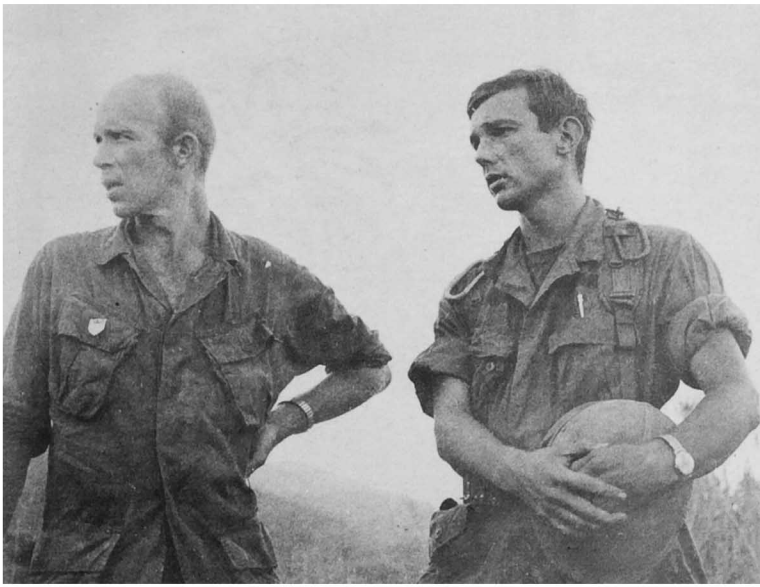

I'm sure there's another piece to this thing somewhere.

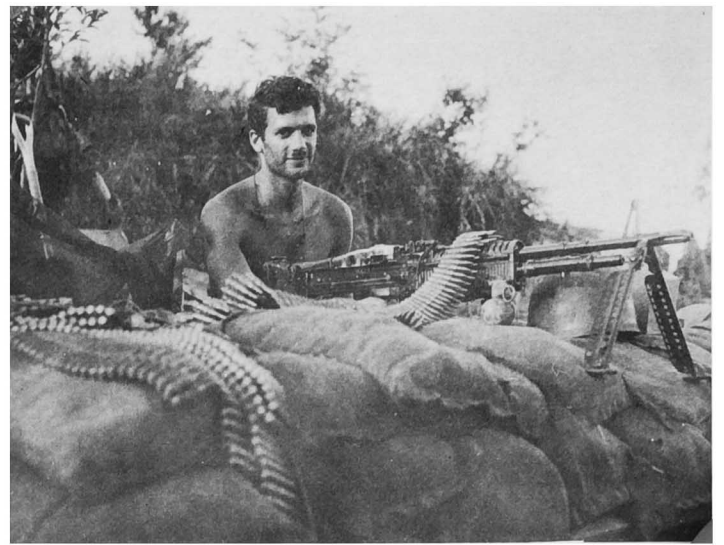

Now, all we need is the darn mortar tube.

Silvia, how many times have I told you not to call me at the office.

Gee Captain, I thought the company was right behind us too.

Just let them try it!

We're ready for the world!

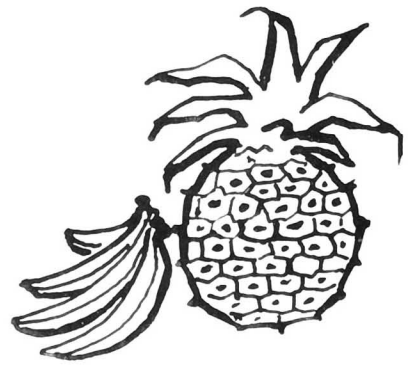

The boys doing their thing.

Gee ma, you didn't have to say that.

The Big Four!

No mail for me? You're on LP tonight!

Top said we can to to town.

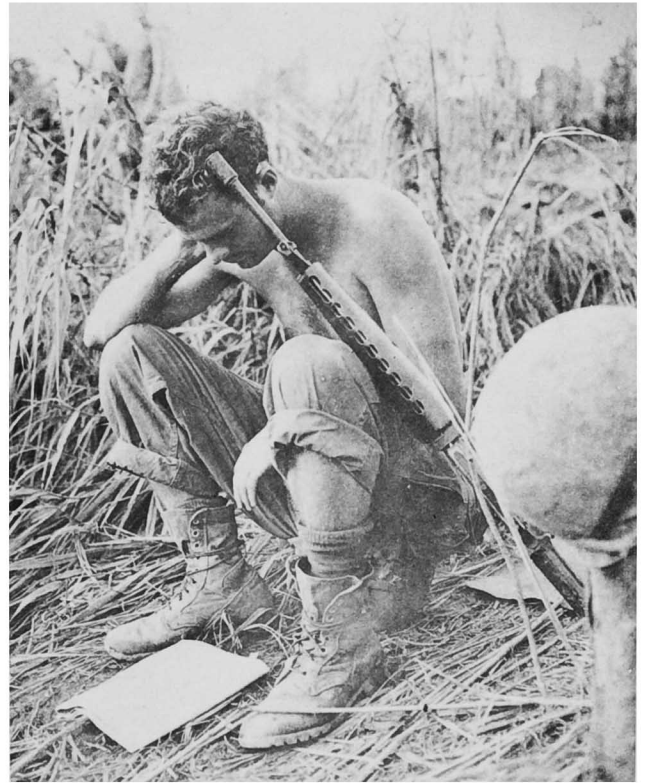

Maybe, if I close my eyes and pretend its a steak...

Things are almost like home, except we miss you Mom - Larry T. Owen

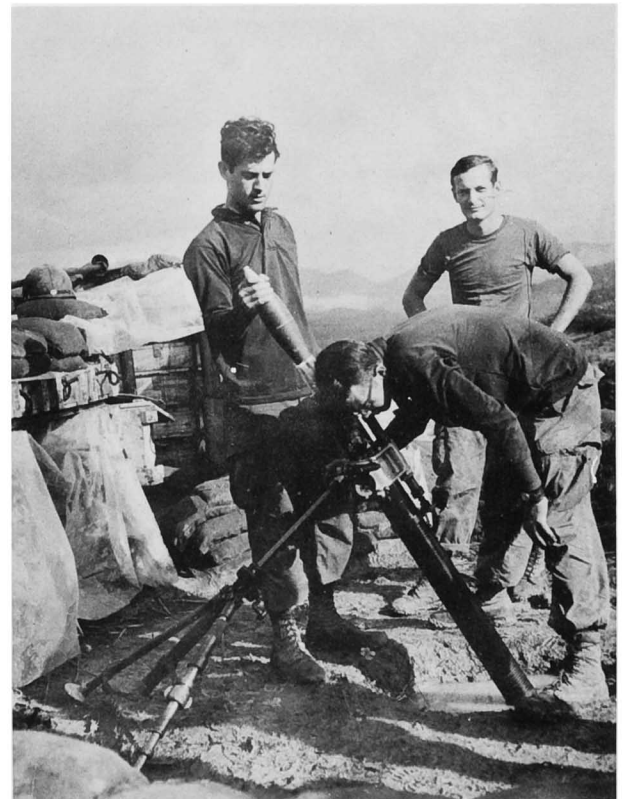

Has anyone got a light?

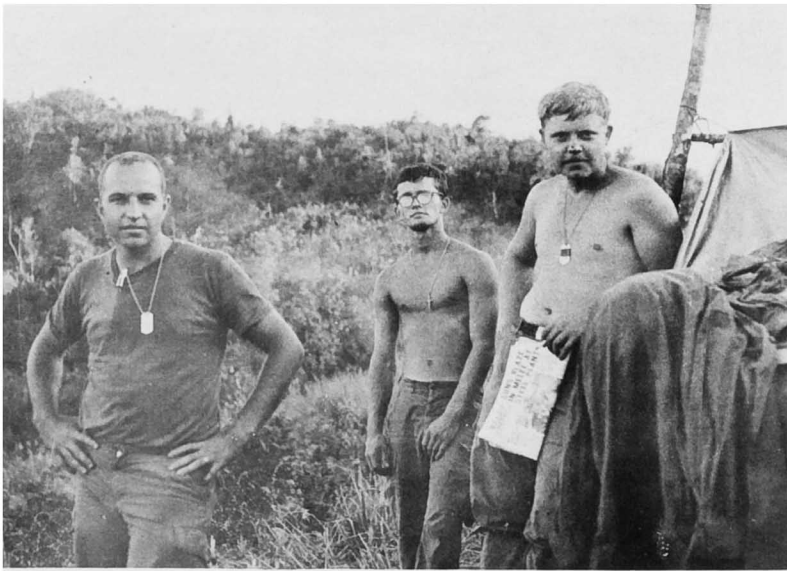

AR-61-3A - Insure that all troops change socks twice daily, and wear shirts with sleeves down to ward off malaria carrying mosquito's.....

Anyone for a pass?

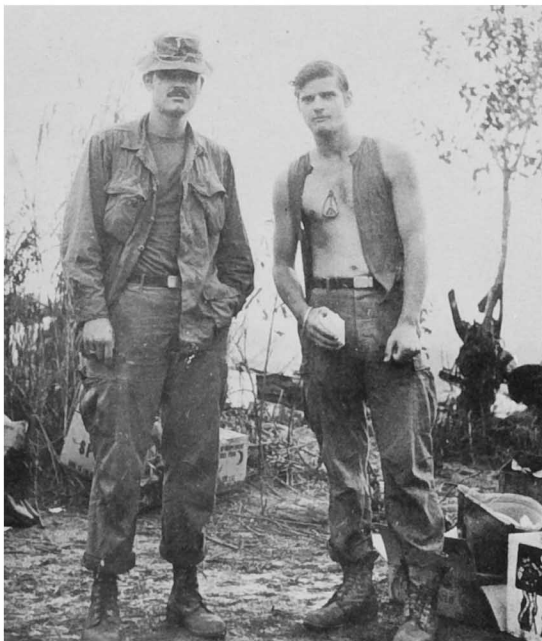

Damn! That first round is still in there.

Mmmm, what-the-heck is he doing?

Now, what am I going to do with a smoking jacket?

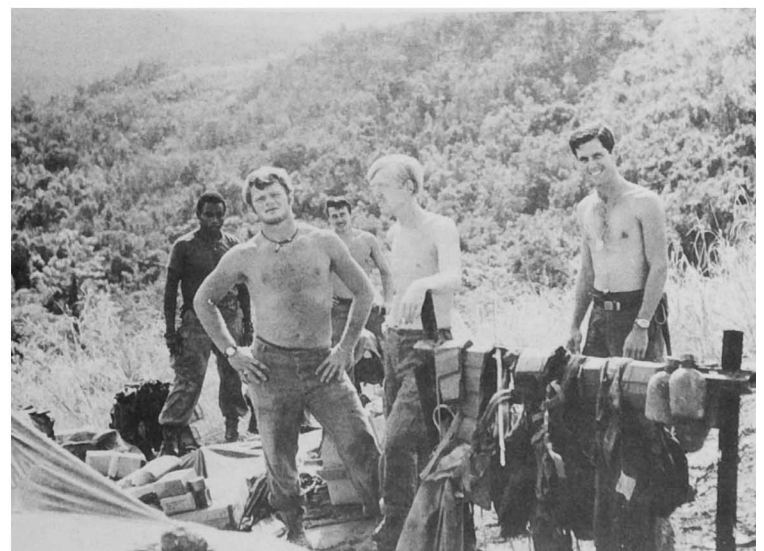

Oh, oh. It looks like a detail. Let's hide!

It says here that the draft has been ended.

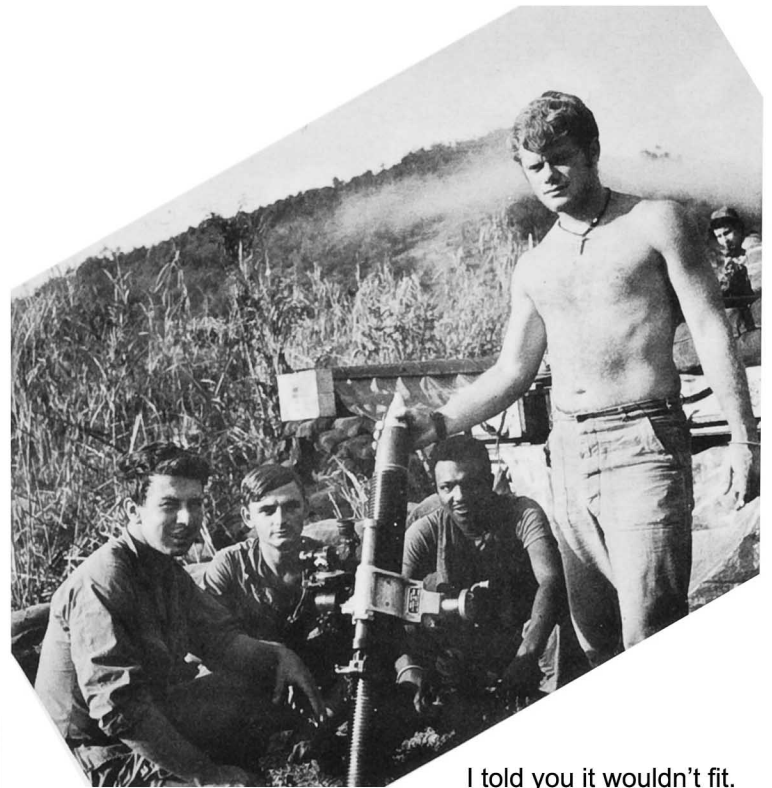

Boy, I wish my girl would send me a picture like that.

Now what do you mean, "Take it down?"

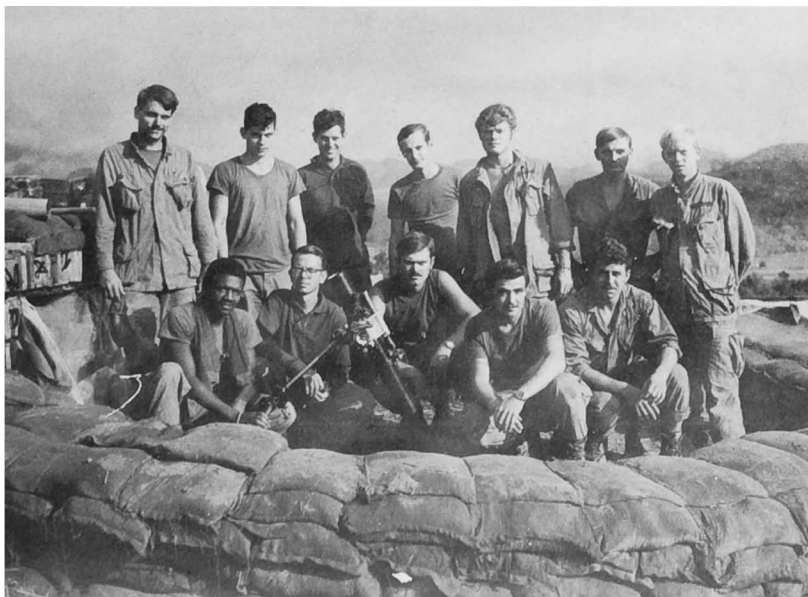

My finger's stuck, fool!

I told you it wouldn't fit.

Now, where's the scotch?

The next one that moves gets shot.

Just a little Vaseline and it slides in every time.

Damn! 4000 rounds and I still missed.

If we don't get some chow soon, I'm going to Chieu Hoi.

10 more seconds, and no Company C.P.

Your money or your life.

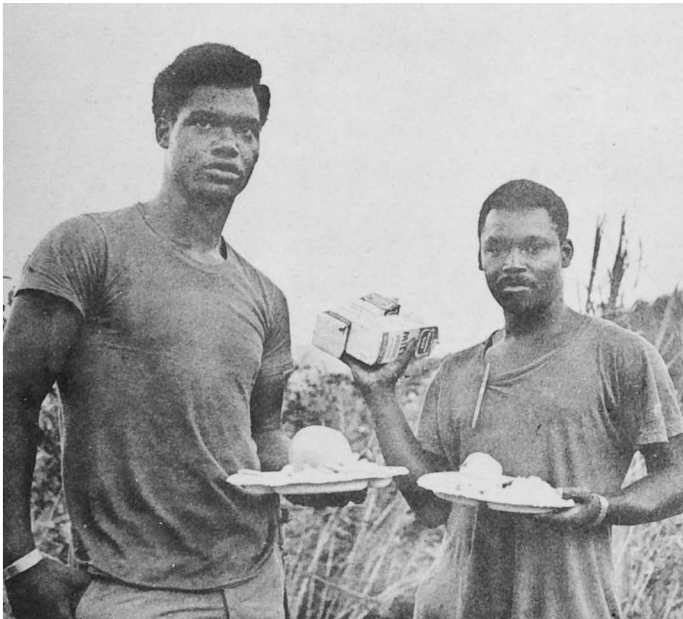

They reel them in and I scale them.

Well, it's called "Something-On-A-Shingle."

And I waited in line....for this?

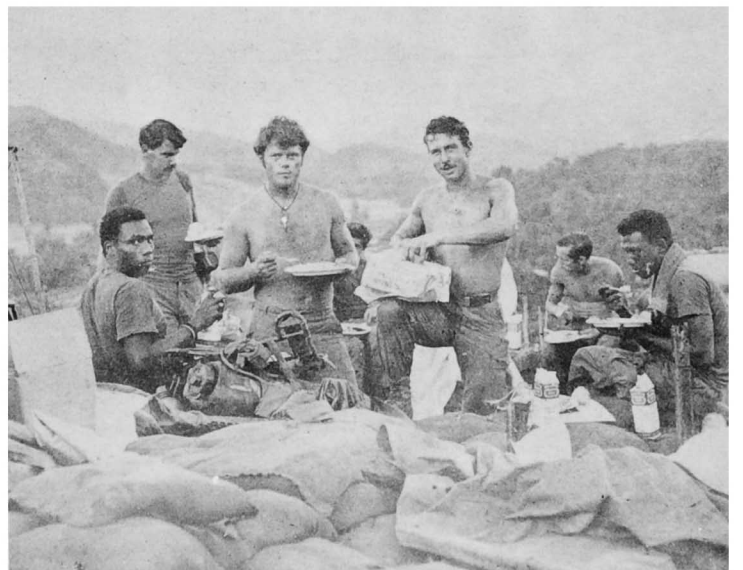

Well, it sure ain't like home cooking.

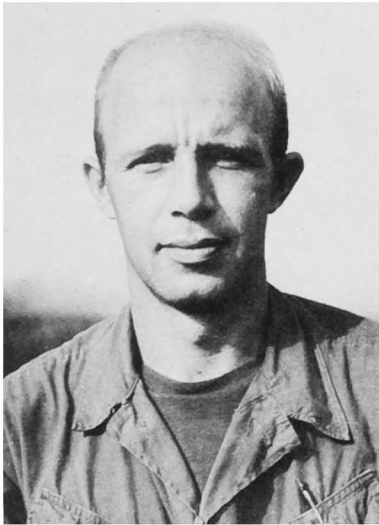

Hey Sgt. Do we eat it or throw it?

Mmmmm Ice cream! ... oh crap, its just cream now.

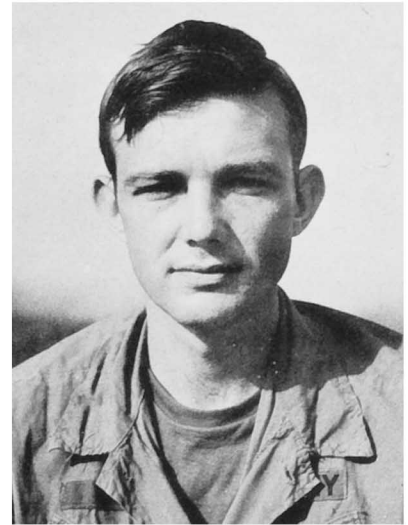

Hey guys, I think this is 12 back issues of Playboy.
