1. (C) Task Organization: No Change
2. (C) Present Situation: Enemy elements continue to use personnel infiltration routes and trails in Battalion AO. It is believed the enemy is using hospital and bunker complex vicinity grid BR2767. It is believed the enemy will continue to use these routes despite the threat of friendly operations in the area.
3. (C) Orders to Subordinate Unit:
 - a. Company B conducts C/A vicinity grid BR2767 on 061730 ^{NOV} ~~July~~ 1970.
 - b. Conduct aggressive patrolling in assigned AO in order to locate hospital and bunker complex. Develop trail network, conduct manned ambushes and set up mechanical ambushes to interdict enemy movement.
 - c. Conduct platoon size saturation patrols in assigned AO.
4. (C) Priority of Fires: Priority of fires to unit in contact.
5. (C) Coordinating Instruction:
 - a. Establish a minimum 20 mechanical ambushes to compliment the personnel ambushes.
 - b. Plan on using halazone tablets instead of having water flown in.
 - c. Internal radios should be used to a minimum. This is to cut down on the radio traffic that is needlessly passed, which results in units compromising their positions.
